THE SALT LAKE CITY DAILY

LOCAL NEWS

HERE are rumors of a person in camp, swallowing, (only she didn't) a little strychnine on Sunday last; but no death having been announced, we conclude that she found the sweets of life to be more compatible with her ideas of existence.

NORFOLK.—We are authorized, says the Spirit of the Times, to announce that Theodore Winters, Esq., the owner of Norfolk, will run him against any horse now on the Pacific Coast, at four-mile heats, with 126 lbs. on each, for $15,000 a side, on any day excepting Sunday, in May next.

STILL the strangers from the north and west and east are thronging at our borders, so that the landlords haven't room to stow 'em away. There is a prospect of there being more live people here this winter than any previous season. Yet, times are by no means brisk, with Greenbacks mighty scarce.

FIRE CHARGED.—As per revised information in another column, Utah & Montana readers will note that the commission and forwarding agency of McFee, Walcott & Co., Salt Lake City and Helena, Montana, is now McFee, Walcott & Co. Mr. J. W. McFee, a thorough business man, takes Mr. Moore's place, the latter gentleman going east.

Some of our Volunteers, whose terms of service with some expire, are to be mustered out at Denver. A private letter informs us that they are pleased with being allowed to be discharged there, as there is plenty of employment. Wages, they state, are from $10 to $1 per day. A number of them are engaged in the winter, by Capt. Hough, Supervisor of the O. S. route to REWARD.

A lot of lemons, the first of the season, arrived by the railroads, from Los Angeles, at San Francisco, on the 10th, says our "Advertiser" from the "Pacific coast." They are sold to be eaten as cucumbers, and hardness a stone, but are large, and round and juicy, and will after a few weeks' keeping, be far superior to any imported green fruit. Some speculative men could make it pay to import a few thousand boxes for the winter, and sell them at a profit.

VALLEY STATION, Oct. 14.—A train of eight wagons camped four miles below here last night, had all their stock stampeded and run off, consisting of thirty-four head of mules, eight horses and six work oxen, supposed to have been Indians. They made their appearance about 1 o'clock and remained around and near camp, till 4 o'clock a.m., when they were heard crossing the Platte river, going in a northern direction. Scouts of the 13th Mo. cavalry started at 8 o'clock this morning in pursuit.

The latest news from Idaho is that the trains are taking a turn at Boise, and Idaho. Capt. Griff, of Boise, witnessed a wagon load of shingles stolen on the 17th, in broad daylight, and some of 'em off the house he occupied at the time! In Owyhee, South Boise and Idaho they have got to running off quartz mills and tunnel claims, together with gold dust, greenbacks and commoner stuff. The "rough gamblers" haven't reached that point in the science yet, but they are said to be making rapid strides towards it.

MEMORIAL TO THE DAILY VENETTE.
New York, Oct. 15.
Gen. McClellan is reported to arrive in New York to-morrow morning. Twenty-one steamers cleared here yesterday; two for Europe, the principal port for our southern news.

The Her side's Garrison correspondent says, the troubles on the coast, between the whites and freedmen, continue. Garrison is reported to be in New York, and the disturbance there, which threatened to become serious. The freedmen are now armed, and 1700 who were stripped of their clothing and compelled to travel to the city on foot, arriving here in a state of starvation. Gen. Revans and Seymour, arrived here on Monday morning and had a council with Gen. Bennett, Commanding District, which measures were adopted to prevent further disturbance in the interior.

Raleigh, Oct. 15.

The Convention, yesterday continued the consideration of the State's first resolution, which passed, requesting the General to remove all negro troops from the State.

New York, Oct. 15.

The Herald's Washington special says, there was a riot at the Baltimore depot this forenoon, between the 10th Ky. Colored regiment, recently assigned to garrison Washington, and a detachment of white troops preparing to go north by a eleven o'clock train; in which a Corporal of the colored troops was killed, and several severely wounded. A couple of veteran reserve regiments were promptly ordered to the scene of trouble. The soldiers left the depot and were soon followed by the veterans arrived.

Fort Monroe, Oct. 13.

Elections in Norfolk and Portsmouth passed off quietly yesterday; the vote was small. Chandler for Congress leads with a majority of 10,000. Thurston and Langhorne are elected for the House as Delegates from Portsmouth. Chandler's majority in Petersburg is over 100; but little opposition was shown to altering the third district's composition, permitting candidates to become eligible to office in the State.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.

John Cessna, Chairman of the Union Central Committee, furnishes the following; the result of the late election in Pa., has not been correctly reported; forty-two counties officially over 50% in the majority of sixty-two; which leaves the Union candidate a clear majority of seventeen thousand; the reported majority in the balance of the State in twenty-four counties, give from five to seven thousand Union majority. The majority at home on the home vote will certainly exceed that of President Lincoln, on the home and army vote, by several thousand and the Union party will have two-thirds of both branches of the legislature. The Union party have gains in thirty-eight of forty-two counties, as officially reported.

Farther Point, Oct. 15.

By the arrival of the Nova Scotia, we have Liverpool dates of the 5th. The London Times, in a leading article, says, the statement that the editor of the Times is a holder of Confederate stock to the amount of ten thousand pounds, is a complete falsehood; so injurious and insulting comment, which the Star has based on the original falsehood, and is, therefore, entirely unfounded. No repudiation can be as great for the levity which admits of such imputations, on the general authority of the New York Herald, and then makes them the theme of affected indignation.

The Morning Star having included Gladstone in the list, called on him for explanation, and publishes the following laconic telegram from that gentleman, at Liverpool:

Chancellor of the Exchequer.—To the editor of the Morning Star.—"I see my name placed on the Confederate list; please remove it."

Hon. E. Ashley writes to the Times that at no time has he any stake or interest in the Confederate loan.

Mr. Ridout, a proprietor of a morning sheet, one of the papers that he never had, nor never applied for any of the loan, and that if the rest of the list be like that which refers to him, no dependence can be placed in it.

An important American torpedo experiment took place at Chatham on the 4th, under the direction of Donald McKay and Mr. Boardman, in the presence of the Lords of the Admiralty. Numerous operations took place, the most important being the destruction of the old sailing frigate Tarsachore. A twenty-five pounder torpedo was placed at the depth of seven feet, below the vessel's keel, when the electric spark was communicated. It was a dull report. The vessel quivered, and in a few moments settled quietly down on even keel, and not a splinter shot into the air.

Fenian arrests continue to the number of all places, of about two hundred.

A superseding agent, bearing the American flag, supposed to be one of those equipped with arms, appeared off Long Island, but again put to sea. A strange vessel was said to have sent a letter on shore, which was opened and found to contain a bill for £15,000, in favor of a member of the Fenian party.

The examination of the Fenian agent was concluded on Saturday, additional evidence developed nothing of importance. The papers were committed to the care of the U. S. marshal.
